I was a writer until I fell in love with code. Now I'm a full-stack web developer, and I'm looking for a team that cares about clean style, delightful interfaces, and egoless learning.

SKILLS

Front end:
- AngularJS
- Backbone (developing)
- jQuery
- Sass/SCSS

Back end:
- Node.js
- Express, REST APIs
- MongoDB (developing)
- EC2, Heroku

Workflow:
- Unix command line, shell scripting
- TDD: Mocha and Chai
- Git collaboration

EXPERIENCE

Web development intern　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　October 2013–June 2014
Zipper Computer　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　Seattle, WA
- Built ZipperComputer.com's web-design and growth-consulting views using Laravel, Foundation, Blade, and more
- Helped design and style the UI of Waycross's new in-house stock-data web app (written in Yii and AngularJS), mostly with SCSS and JavaScript
- Designed and built BloomYogaNW.com—a WordPress site and custom theme—using Advanced Custom Fields, SCSS, and Foundation
- Built Waycross.com, a pixel-for-pixel WordPress clone of a flat HTML/CSS site
- Automated part of the Waycross app's backend using Cron, Bash, PHP, SQL, and more

Marketing communications editor & copywriter　　　　　　May 2012–August 2014
Logos Bible Software　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　Bellingham and Seattle, WA
- Wrote web copy, blog posts, emails, and social copy for Logos's philosophy/classics division
